SNCC and its members.

SNCC is 10 years old!

From the 2008 Archives, pictured here is Coach Dan Harris on the left, and Commodore Richard Morris on the right. The club started in shipping containers on Townline Tunnel Road, and now we're back! How should we celebrate this milestone? Share your ideas with your coach or with your Board representative! Here's to many more years for SNCC!

Members of SNCC dragon boat crews will be going across the pond to participate in two different race festivals. Travel safe and have a great time!

DRAGON BOAT FESTIVAL

Welland Dragon Boat Festival

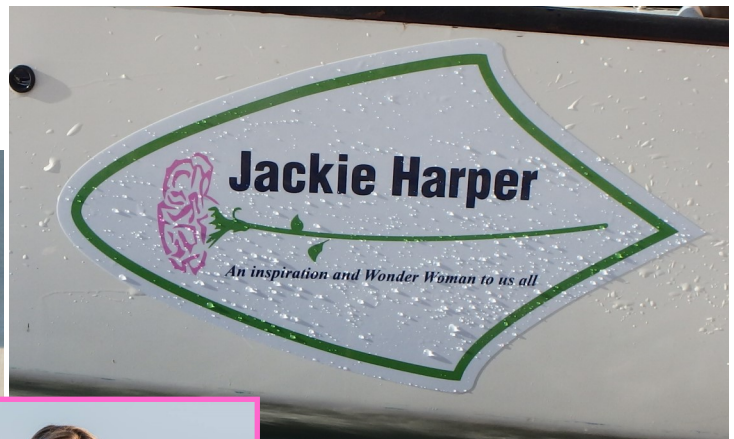

On Saturday June 9, members from each of the recreation dragon boat crews raced at the Welland Dragon Boat Festival. In their final race of the day, one boat contained Canal Dragons and Waves of Women while another boat contained Hope Floats members. For some paddlers, it was their first race festival! Congratulations on great effort!

Waking the Dragon Ceremony

Sally dots the dragon's eyes to awaken it.

On June 13, SNCC's white dragon boat was named the Jackie Harper, in honour of a paddler who passed away in 2015. Read about Jackie's story here: <https://www.niagarathisweek.com/news-story/8177429-cancer-is-not-beating-me/>

Upcoming Events

Summer Registration

Sign up for summer paddling on our website, www.sncc.ca.

Raffle

SNCC is reapplying for its raffle license with the city of Welland. We await the review and approval of our application in order to begin our raffle. Stay tuned for details.

Volunteer

Many volunteer opportunities at WIFC events will result in money being donated to SNCC. Please speak with Tracey Pigeon, our volunteer coordinator or your coaches about how you can help. Lots of ways to help, all very soon!

Next Board Meeting Date and location to be determined.

The Catch and the Archives could use your help!

Since I am a dragon boater, I can easily write and post pictures about dragon boat events. But I would like to see an equal representation on happenings with Canoe/Kayak paddlers. Post pictures from your regattas on the SNCC Facebook pages, either the Sport Group or the Public Group. Or post to the SNCC Instagram account. Share your news with us! We'd all be happy to hear your news!
